

MERGE 4

MERGE4 Good

We believe in making socks where the only footprints are the ones you leave on your adventures. We believe that giving back, leaving this world in a better state than we found it and maximizing transparency and accountability goes hand in hand with making the best socks your feet have ever donned. Founded on these principles, it only made sense that MERGE4 joined the growing ranks of similarly minded organizations and incorporated – from day 1 – as a certified B Corporation. Why aren't all companies B Corps? Because it's hard. Because it takes dedication and ongoing commitment. The rigorous standards ingrained in this certification are part of our DNA and we wouldn't have it any other way.

MERGE4 was created on the foundation of "business for good". With that comes an intense desire to do good in the world around us. Here are some of the projects we're passionate about and partnered with in our efforts to do a little good.

Lucile Packard Children's Hospital at Stanford - We donate a portion of all MERGE4 socks to the Lucile Packard Children's Hospital. Every year MERGE4 looks forward to giving children events to engage in and to remember how to have fun and be kids. We bring together our collaborators, such as Jimbo Phillips, Scott Greathouse and Dave Nelson to create amazing socks featuring art from the children. Together they doodled, canoodled and shared some joyful art making, which we have translated into some of our most popular designs, Lucile Packard Eyeballs and Lucile Packard Heart. Thank you for your purchase, and for your part in the impact we will have as the company continues to grow.

Proceeds from sales of all MERGE4 products go towards putting socks (and happiness) on the feet of children at Stanford's Lucile Packard Children's Hospital who are there for extended care with a focus on transplants. In addition, being introduced to these amazing kids in their time of need has provided us with other opportunities where we get to involve our amazing collaborators. Whether sharing their art, their music or their passion for sports and life, our collaborators bring vibrant experiences that spark hope and creativity. From Sock Blocs, to concerts and art sessions, we've been blessed to facilitate these interactions and witness the happiness that comes from them. We've even been able to turn the children's art from these sessions into socks.

San Diego Zoo - MERGE4 is proud to be an official partner of San Diego Zoo Global. San Diego Zoo Global is a nonprofit conservation organization working to save endangered species worldwide. Between October 1, 2019 and September 30, 2021, MERGE4 will donate 7% of the gross sales from each pair of MERGE4 X END EXTINCTION socks purchased from merge4.com to the San Diego Zoo Global Wildlife Conservancy and their conservation efforts, with a minimum donation of $20,000. Rock your MERGE4 socks with conviction and join us in helping San Diego Zoo Global #EndExtinction!

The Jane Goodall Institute - Equipped with little more than a notebook, binoculars, and her fascination with wildlife, Jane Goodall braved a realm of unknowns to give the world a remarkable window into humankind's closest living relatives. Through nearly 60 years of groundbreaking work, Dr. Jane Goodall has not only shown us the urgent need to protect chimpanzees from extinction; she has also redefined species conservation to include the needs of local people and the environment. A portion of the proceeds from these Jane Goodall socks goes directly to the Institute.

Bradley's House - In our continuing collaboration with Sublime, MERGE4 is honored to support and sock-sponsor this organization. Inspired by late Sublime front man Bradley Nowell, the Nowell Family Foundation provides addiction recovery services to the music community. The Nowell Family Foundation is raising funds to open Bradley's House, a six-bed recovery facility that will provide treatment for people in the music industry with opiate addiction, regardless of their financial situation. The goal is to offer a top level of clinical care, including medical detox and the ability to treat the most acute cases, through nationwide partnerships.

Jay Moriarity Foundation - The Jay Moriarity Foundation, a not for profit, was founded to continue the spirit of Jay to "positively affect our communities, our environment, and our children." MERGE4 is honored to continue sponsoring and supporting this organization. Please see our Moriarity socks. He was an original one-of-a-kind.

Tim Brauch Foundation - In honor of the late skateboarding legend, Tim Brauch, the foundation brings kids to the Woodward West skateboard camp. Scholarship funds are raised through two annual contests in California, the Tim Brauch Foundation Skateboard Contests at the Lake Cunningham Regional Skatepark in San Jose, and at the Tim Brauch Memorial Skate Park in Scotts Valley. MERGE4 thanks you for helping us support the next generation of skateboarders.

Need some help merging for good? Contact us and let us know what good you are trying to bring to the scene. And, let us know how you would like MERGE4 to help. We do special socks for special reasons. Thanks!

GRADY BRANNAN

Out of NorCal, world ditty-bopping, urban street-guerrilla photog, who has been shootin' skateboarding since he was a pup. Shooting Musicians, DJ's & their crowds behind gritty eyelids, Grady Brannan remains estranged from the echoes of reality. Scrumptious visuals that he's sucked into his apertures from G Eazy to visuals on billboards at Times Square, taste oddly like a spoonful of honey under each arm, huge dabs of mischief behind each ear, capturing noiselessly loud images that are stilled in the strobes fragmented moment.

MOFO

If you were around in the mid 70's to early 80's and had anything to do with the skate-punk revolution, odds are you knew of this classic character that goes by many names. He has sung in a few of the best underground bands the bay Area had to offer, and he has shot photos of some of the most legendary skaters of all time. He is one of a handful of skaters that had the vision and resolve that made Thrasher Skate Magazine a reality and was recently inducted into Skateboarding's Hall of Fame.

MERGE4 Good

MERGE4 was created on the foundation of "business for good". With that comes an intense desire to do good in the world around us. Proceeds from sales of all MERGE4 products go towards putting socks (and happiness) on the feet of children at Stanford's Lucile Packard Children's Hospital who are there for extended care with a focus on transplants. Knowing a thing or two about transplants (our founder gave a kidney to her brother – don't tell her we told you!) taught us that it can re-ally take the stuffing out of you, not to mention dampen spirits at a time when you need them at their highest. Each pair you purchase helps put a smile on a child's face as well as a pair of super comfy socks on your feet and theirs. Win – win! And we get to be the facilitator in all this which pretty much puts a perma-smile on our faces. Smiles all around. In addition, being introduced to these amazing kids in their time of need has provided us with other opportunities where we get to involve our amazing collaborators. Whether sharing their art, their music and their passion for sports and life, our collaborators bring vibrant experiences that spark hope and creativity. From Sock Blocs to concerts to art sessions we've been blessed to facilitate these interactions and witness the happiness that comes from them. We've even been able to turn the children's art from these sessions into socks!

MERGE4 is proudly partnered with:

WOMEN'S SOCKS

BELLE DEE

Belle's work has been published in several magazines including Rue Morgue, Horror- Hound, Little Shoppe of Horrors and Video Watchdog. Since 2017, she has been working with Beastwreck Stuff creating designs for stickers, pins and t-shirts. You can find more of Bee's stuff at the BeastWreck Stuff online shop - beastwreck.storenvy.com!

SLOGAN

Traveling with a group of friends back and forth across the country would be the fuel of so much creativity and opportunity for Shaun Logan. A former tour manager and guitar technician for a few bands would help launch his career into the art world. The name "Slogan" was a mishap on a run of printed shirts for a band. The period between the "S" and "Logan" didn't print and from that day forward he has been called Slogan.

Taylor has found his calling in painting murals and continues to paint around the Bay Area. We're constantly amazed by his talent and BEYOND proud that he's a part of the MERGE4 line-up!

STEVE CABALLERO

Woven from the gnarly fabric of San Jose's outer Eastside, deeply established and in the groove of skateboarding's fledgling puberty during the mid to late '70s. His inner creativity is overwhelmingly powerful - music, painting, illustration, motorcycles, hot rods, and a furious dedication to constant personal and spiritual growth. Caballero holds many distinctions, from being the first to have his own signature brand shoe, the "Half Cab" to the longest continually selling signature model skateboard deck with Powell Peralta, a company he started with and remains with since 1979.

BAD OTIS LINK

Self-taught and self-educated, Bad Otis Link sharpened his distinct style as an artist in the late 70's through the mid-90's as one of Los Angeles' premier and most notorious punk rock artists. Otis played saxophone in local punk bands while producing and designing merchandise for the first generation of touring punk and sub culture bands. An absolute artist from beyond the fringe, Otis is by all accounts a "Lowbrow-Art" extraordinaire – before it was ever a thing, and long before it's 15 minutes of cool had even begun.

MAIA NEGRE

We are honored to have Maia Negre as MERGE4's first female artist. Most renowned for her dreamy surfscapes, mermaids, abstract florals, and coastal landscapes, Maia's work is captivating, inspiring, and an expression of reverence to the beauty of life. It is no wonder why she has quickly become one of Santa Cruz's most beloved and popular artists. When not in her studio painting, this gentle powerhouse of an artist can be found on the tennis court, in the yoga studio, or surfing in the sea.

Caia Koopman is a preeminent pop surrealism artist who has been featured in prominent galleries from California to Canada and France. Over the years, her paintings have graced the walls of Thinkspace, Spacejunk, and La Luz De Jesus Galleries as well as the pages of numerous books and magazines. The appealing symbols in her work evoke fundamental human emotions in exquisite, surreal detail making them well received in the action sports industry as well as the fine art world.

HANNA MINCK

By regularly escaping the Canadian climate and taking trips to Disneyland, Hanna Minck's passion for animation and artistry developed at a very young age. While dreaming of working at Disney, she was always drawing. Through her teen and University years, she proved to be an avid athlete and spent much of her time traveling the world, playing volleyball. While a fierce competitor on the court, her love of art never stopped and she kept creating pleasant works of art.
